

Every Pappas-owned radio station uses the public airwaves free of charge ONLY if they fulfill their legal obligation of presenting material for the public interest. Local political campaigns are no exception. For Pappas to "donate" $325,000 worth of air time to one-sided messages is a clear breach of legal obligation, and they should be censured and fined accordingly. Their license should also be reviewed and possibly revoked.